Blue/Gray Game – Blue Squad

#6 Brett Mitchell QB Evangel - Camp player. Sling type delivery. Under threw two deep balls that were caught by Johnson and Thurman. Has size and strength for position. Low delivery point. Quick release. Needs mechanic and fundamental work.

#12 Scott Rislov QB San Jose State - 7th round/priority free agent. Game MVP. Good adjust to the rush, poised in pocket, eyes downfield, can find the outlet receiver. Comfortable in pocket. Steps into throw. Good touch and fundamentals. Throws tight spiral.

#14 Tony Johnson WR Penn State - Draft 4th/6th round, depends on verified speed. Fundamentally sound receiver. Good run after catch. Strong. Good receiving skills. Comes back to the ball. Strong hands. Built like a running back. Good blocker.

#24 Andrae Thurman WR Southern Oregon/Arizona – Draft 5th/6th rounds. Hand catcher, comes back to the ball. Also returns punts and kickoffs. Soft hands. Will layout for ball. Catches ball at the high point.

#80 Lance Young WR Iowa State – Priority free agent. Will trap ball against chest. Good leaping ability. Can return kickoffs and punts – not special. More of a body catcher than a hand catcher.

#82 Ryan Krause WR Nebraska-Omaha – Free agent. Big wide receiver that must be a slot guy. Poor man's Billy Miller – Texas. Lacks quickness out of break. Lacks overall quickness in his game.

#44 Ronnie Ghent TE Louisville – Free agent. Receiver only – tight end that has inconsistent hands. Below average blocking ability. Lacks bulk and strength. Long arms.

#46 Matt Kranchick TE Penn State – Free agent. Big target. Traps ball against his body. High cut. Must work to stay low and bend to block. Runs hard after catch. Slender build.

#84 Nate Lawrie TE Yale – Free agent. Big target. Question speed. Good blocking awareness. Good adjust to block linebackers on second level. Has some upper and lower body stiffness.

#26 Larry Croom RB UNLV – Free agent. Has some shake and bake moves. Can make the defender miss. Gets what's blocked. Good effort to block on blitz pickup – undersized. Third down back with good vision. Shifty moves.

#28 Butchie Wallace RB Marshall – Replaced Koutsos after injury. Free agent. Has average running skills and quickness. Has some inside vision and pick ability. Lacks the strength to move the pile.

#28 Tom Koutsos RB Southern Illinois – Injured, did not play. Was a free agent in practice sessions. Has an injury history. Tackle to tackle runner. Lacks speed to turn the corner.

#30 Derrick Ward RB Ottawa (KS)/Fresno State – Draft 5th/7th rounds. Good agility in space. Can run with strength and power or shake you in the open field. Good hands and vision to catch ball. Good cutting ability and inside vision while running ball. Good running skills.

#32 Dusty McGrorty RB Southern Oregon – Camp/free agent. Try hard player with limited ability. Inconsistent hands catching the ball out of backfield. Flashes an upfield burst.

#52 Quinn Christensen OG/OT Brigham Young – Draft late – 6th/7th round. Played the best of Blue offensive linemen. Played better at OT than OG. Battler. Physical player that gets the job done. Works to finish. Ornerly player. Plays with an attitude. Played left OT at times. Was impressive vs. several defensive linemen. Good awareness. Better in pass pro. On the ground and inconsistent early in game. Gets high at times. Long arms.

#66 Chris McKelvy OG Penn State – Camp player. No anchor. Will get driven back into QB. Over extends on the line while run blocking. Consistently leveraged.

#68 Nate McPeck ROT Marshall – Free agent. Loses feet in traffic. Plays high. Consistently driven back into pocket. Below average athlete. Works to finish. Can't anchor.

#70 Jim Molinaro OT Notre Dame – Draft late/7th round/priority free agent. Waist bender that positions defender. Gets pulled by in pass pro. Question strength and balance. Not smooth in footwork. Will over extend on run blocks. Works and walls off defender in pass pro. Has some upper and lower body stiffness. Consistently beat inside. Long arms.

#72 Nick Romeo OC Syracuse – Free agent. Undersized. Phone booth player. Butt is one foot off the ground. Basically helped guards on double team because there was no blitzing.

#74 Luke Salmons OG Marshall – Free agent. Maddox #93 for Gray team used him for a punching bag. He leveraged Salmons and drove him back so often it looked like Salmons was on skates. No anchor – can't stop a charge. Was beaten by every opponent. Lacks strength and quickness. Needs center help. Plays high. Lacks quickness and range.

#76 Kurt Sigler OT Eastern Washington – Camp player. Below average balance. Couldn't handle edge speed or a two move player. OK on down blocks. Must be an OG. Gave up some sacks. Gets beat inside and outside.

#42 Raheem Orr DE Rutgers – Free agent. Inconsistent to fight pressure. Struggles to separate from blocker. Was wired to offensive tackles. In drills had a quick first step but did not finish during game. Doesn't make plays. Question awareness and instincts.

#48 Michael O'Brien DT Western Illinois – Free agent. Fights pressure. Plays with leverage. Undersized. Active player that goes to the whistle.

#54 Gabe Nyenhuis DE Colorado – Draft 5th/7th rounds. Long arms. The Gray had no one to block him. Active, good leverage player that plays with good knee bend. Always around ball – pressuring QB. Good effort player. When cut he bounces up and gets in on play. Plays low.

#78 Sean Mulcahy DT Connecticut – Free agent. Good initial quickness but below average change of direction. Plays sluggish after first step. If he doesn't beat you on first step he's stuck on block. Not a fast twitch guy. Inconsistent to use hands – stuck on blocker. Will make a play every so often. Had most of success with a weak blocker.

#90 Dietrich Canterberry DE UNLV – Draft 7th round. Short area quickness. Plays with leverage. Lacks long pursuit speed. Plays with effort and can push the pocket. Good backside chaser. Finishes play.

#92 Christian Ferrara DT Syracuse – Free agent. Usually draws a double team. Fights pressure. Stuck on blocker. One speed player with no moves. Shoots gap. Awkward in movement.

#94 Derek Kennard DT Nevada – Free agent. Takes good pursuit angles. Good motor and effort player. Thick lower body. Lacks height for position. Finishes play.

#34 Rich Scanlon MLB Syracuse – Draft 6th/7th rounds. Active player. Has good instincts and awareness. Runs at a good competitive speed. Good to key and diagnose. Physically tough. Average use of hands. Has strength versus the inside run. Functional strength. Short arms.

#36 Deryck Toles OLB Penn State – Free agent. Explosive undersized linebacker. Question instincts. Late reacting at times. Shallow in pass drops. Has a good burst to the ball.

#38 Daryl Towns OLB Nevada – Free agent. Active and productive. Good in man to man cover. Downhill player. Plays tall. Not a great knee bender. Undersized with long arms.

#40 Renauld Williams OB Hofstra – Free agent. Undersized outside linebacker. Had a sack in game. Gets turned and collapsed at times. Aggressive but out of control. Had several missed tackles. Short arms.

#50 Jonathan Harrell IB Northern Iowa – Draft 4th/6th rounds. Athletic linebacker. Has short area agility. Good use of hands and instincts. Has good speed. Was injured most of 2003, groin, etc.

#2 Marvin Jackson DC Chadron State – Priority free agent. Waited on deep ball. Needs fundamental and mechanic work.

#10 Randee Drew DC Northern Illinois – Free agent. Undersized. Will have problems in matchups with big strong wide receivers. Aggressive, can jump. Good hands. Lacks tackling strength. Willing but not a strong tackler.

#16 JaMaine Billups SS Iowa State – Draft 6th/7th rounds. Physical player. Good on run support. Has an explosive wrap. Jason Belser clone. Will struggle in most m/m matchups.

#18 Justin Sandy FS Northern Iowa – Draft 4th/6th rounds. Good hitter. Plays ball in air. Has corner experience. A safety with good man to man skills. Good athletic ability. Effective on special teams. Good to play deep ball. Good lateral movement and back pedal. Good vision and reacts.

#20 Josh Minkins DC Louisville – Free agent. Will have problems in matchups with big receivers. Has average closing quickness. Willing to run support but lacks size. Cut tackler. Gets bounced around.

#22 Ben Nauman Safety Augustan (SD) – Draft 5th/7th round. Physical player that is better in a zone scheme than man to man. Good instincts and toughness. Good to read and react. Good use of hands to shed block. Smooth in transition.

#4 Steve Baker P/PK Southern Oregon – Camp player.

#8 Steve Azar PK/P Northern Illinois – Camp player. Inconsistent leg strength and accuracy.

Blue/Gray Game – Gray Squad

#1 Luke McCown QB Louisiana Tech – Priority free agent. Was a shotgun QB. Throws into double coverage. Inconsistent to throwing point. Quick release. Could not make the 15 yard out cut throw to left from right hash. Average arm strength.

#17 Robert Kent QB Jackson State – Draft 6th/7th as a project. Throws a wobbly ball. Needs work on all fundamentals and mechanics of QB play. Lost the handle on the ball several times. Long arms and small hands. Good size for a QB – 6042, 213.

#23 Zach Fletcher WR Alabama – Free agent. Hand catcher. Waits on ball. Long arms and big hands. Possession receiver. Needs to work on all receiver fundamentals and mechanics.

#39 Terrance Copper WR East Carolina – Draft 6th/7th round. Good hands – caught several low balls in practice on fingertips. Also returns punts and kickoffs. Built like a running back. Has some run after catch ability. Average size – 5114, 201. Will compete. Question ability to separate.

#81 Huey Whittaker WR South Florida – Draft 4th/6th round. Big receiver. Billy Miller (Texans) type – H back or big slot receiver. Big target. Physical receiver. Good downfield blocker. Reportedly had a scope 2 weeks prior to Blue/Gray practices. Long arms. Well built. Draft status depends on verified 40. Big target on slant, hitch, and under routes. No yards after catch.

#85 Dre Fulghum WR Alabama – Free agent. Possession receiver. Can't separate from defender. Big hands. Strong runner. Can't separate from defensive backs.

#43 Richard Owens TE/LS Louisville – Draft 6th/7th round. Long snapper that plays a position. Quick into defender with first steps. Good at underneath and flat pass routes. Long arms and big hands.

#87 Michael Gaines TE Central Florida – Draft risk. Better as a priority free agent. Big receiver. Did not play in 2003. Looked sluggish and out of shape. Made a nice overhead catch in practice. Question speed (5.1?) Long arms and big hands.

#89 Bobby Blizzard TE North Carolina – Draft 7th round or priority free agent. Has soft hands. Will body catch as needed. Average speed. Position, wall off blocker. Had a viral infection in fall. May not be up to speed.

#25 DeJuan Green RB South Florida – Priority free agent. Has some shake and bake moves. Slips tacklers - has quick feet and a quick first step. Can make defenders miss. Georgia transfer. Compact build, 5110, 200. Has the ability to make a team. Needs to improve blocking.

#27 Keylon Kincade RB SMU – Free agent. Good inside vision and cutting ability. Needs work on blocking. Question finish speed. Has some natural instincts and running skills. Average size back.

#29 Vick King RB McNeese State – Free agent. Good balance. Straight ahead runner. Good inside vision. Needs to improve blocking skills.

#31 Vonta Leach RB East Carolina - Draft 6th/7th round. Tough inside runner. Good balance when hit. Good inside vision and cutter. More straight line but can run over defenders. Good hands to catch ball. Had a tackle on punt team. Inconsistent blocker. 6000, 248. Effective catcher in flat.

#55 Dennis Alexander OL Alabama – Camp guy. Plays upright and high. Lacks power and leverage. Lacks thick butt and hips – no butt. Borderline reject. No compete. Goes to knees on contact. Soft player. Not physical. No finish.

#65 Cedric Fields OG Baylor – Reject. Lacks strength and athletic ability to play on next level. Can't anchor. Inconsistent to finish. Lacks size. Out of place at this game.

#67 Branden Hall OT Troy State – Free agent. Lacks lower body strength to anchor and stop charge. Overextends and goes to ground. Struggles to block moving target.

#69 Atlas Herrion OT Alabama - Camp guy. High on pulls. No anchor. Gets driven back into pocket. Can't handle edge speed. Consistently was put on skates. Could not sit down. Below average balance. No knee bend.

#71 Mark Moroz OT Wake Forest – Free agent. Must play offensive guard. Lacks thick lower body. Plays high and looks awkward in space. Has some mirror and slide but struggles with edge speed. Canadian. No knee bend. Gets up on toes.

#75 Nick Seitze OC Kentucky – Free agent. Plays high and has stiffness in upper and lower body. Lacks bend to anchor and stop charge. No adjust in open field.

#77 Jupiter Wilson OG North Carolina – Camp guy. Upright player. Not a space player. Lacks anchor to stop charge. Consistently beat inside. High on pulls. Floundered around as a pass and run blocker. Lazy player.

#53 Jon Bradley DE Arkansas State – Draft 5th/6th round. Good initial quickness to shoot down line of scrimmage. Doesn't stay blocked. Explosive punch that jolts blocker. Good effort and quickness. Has quick hands and used his hands effectively – played both DE and DT. Was more effective outside.

#57 Nautyn McKay-Loescher DE Alabama – Draft 5th/6th round. Only objective in Blue/Gray game was to burst upfield to sack the QB. Did not respect run. He did get a sack. Good initial quickness. Out of control on pass rush. Good effort player but took himself out of too many plays. Average change of direction to turn corner. Canadian. 3-4 outside rusher. 6024, 257.

#61 Michale Spicer DE Western Carolina – Free agent. Good use of hands. Quick to shed blocker in 1 on 1 drills. Good leverage and punch. Undersized and got engulfed at times. May be a 3-4 outside rusher. Gets pushed around pile on rush. 6016, 255, long arms.

#91 Brandon Calton DT East Tennessee State – Draft 6th/7th round. Good effort player. Lacks big thick butt and thighs. Quick first step. Better than average lateral quickness. Had a caused fumble in game. Works hard every play. 6030, 291, average arm length.

#93 Anthony Maddox DT Delta State – Draft 6th/7th round or priority free agent. Florida State background. Does not stay blocked. Explosive with good hand use. Sudden to hit gaps in slant and angles stunts. High motor, good effort player. Will get bounced at times on down block. Consistently pressed the pocket. Has good instincts and field awareness. Good downfield pursuit and effort. Has ability. Overage? 6012, 286, long arms.

#95 Damane Duckett DT East Carolina - Draft 5th/6th round. Big thick butt and thighs. Not a fast twitch player. Not a quick footed, athletic lineman. More of a power, press the pocket player. Plays tall because he is tall. His role for the NFL will be an inside push guy that takes up space. Clogs middle. Average instincts. Gives effort – just not quick. 6060, 303, long arms 35 inches.

#99 Jeremy Caudill DT Kentucky – Draft 4th/6th round. Fights pressure – good initial quickness. Runs his feet to QB. Explosive inside push. Sudden first step. Good timing between hands and feet. Good upfield and lateral quickness. Strong hands to separate from blocker. Played both DE and DT. Has short arms. Consistently pressed the pocket. Finishes the play. High effort player.

#5 Derrick Pope OB Alabama - Draft 6th/7th round. Undersized as a linebacker. May be a run stuffing strong safety. Downhill player. Good to read and react. Will finish pursuit. I'm not sure where he's going to play, but he is going to play. Attacks the line of scrimmage. Contact player and hitter. Active in special teams. 5111, 222, big hands and long arms.

#33 Stevie Baggs OB Bethune-Cookman – Free agent. May be a medical. Pigeon toed – looks like he walks on his ankles. Good motor and aggressiveness. Out of control as a tackler at times. Active player. Big hitter. Makes plays.

#35 Kellen Brantley OB Wake Forest – Priority free agent. Instinctive. Good tackler in space. Appears to have good coverage awareness. Plays high. Good hitter. Long arms.

#45 Cody Spencer IB North Texas – Draft 5th/6th round. Good instincts and ability to react quickly. Sideline to sideline pursuit. Active tackler. Good zone awareness and change of direction in open field. Struggles to protect legs versus cut blocks. Can work effectively through traffic. Active player that contributes on special teams. In the game he broke up passes, filled running lanes, tackles the TE on a TE screen, made tackles on special teams and had 10+ tackles.

#51 Jason Clark OB Mississippi State – Free agent. Has some upper and lower body stiffness. OK space player. Good lateral speed. Downhill player. Quick to break on ball.

#3 Marcus Winn FS Alabama State – Free agent. Aggressive player. Played as an outside linebacker in scheme at times. Did a good job of overlapping corner on deep coverage. 6001, 219.

#7 Michael Waddell DC North Carolina – Draft 6th/7th round. Corner and kick returner. Flashes quick break on ball. One speed guy – fast. Beat in coverage by 80 – Young. Inconsistent open field tackler. Cover corner that has raw skills and speed.

#9 Chris Thompson DC Nicholls State – Draft 4th/5th round. Can track and trail wide receivers. Good tackler in space. Plays deep ball at high point. No receiver separated from him. Good awareness. Has speed and hand quickness.

#11 Rayshun Reed SS Troy State – Free agent. Will hit on support. Up quickly if he sees it.

#37 Quintin Williams SS Wake Forest – Draft 6th/7th round. Good effort on support. Struggles to play ball in the air. Box type run support safety only. Active tackler. Throws body around. Hitter. Productive.

#41 DeAndre Eiland DC South Carolina – 7th round, priority free agent. Needs to stick his foot in the ground. Loses wide receiver in separation. Gets beat in coverage. May be a cover two support corner only.

#15 Nate McKinney PT Appalachian State – Free agent. 55 yard punt, 4.02 hang time. Held for PATs.

#21 Josh Scobee PK Louisiana Tech – Draft 6th/7th round or priority free agent. KO – 73 yards/4.23, 64/4.29, 75/4.27, 70/4.09. Made 37 yard field goal. Showed good poise on botched snap. No rush on field goals and PATs. Gets ball up high and quick. Good leg strength.

Cactus Bowl - East

#2 Jordon Babineaux SS Southern Arkansas – Camp player. Physical player on support. Quick read and react. Good hitter. Needs tech and mech work on man to man coverage. Was beat by #4 Crenshaw.

#44 Andrew Battle DE Indiana (PA) – Late draft/priority free agent. Has sudden edge speed. Undersized. May project to an outside linebacker. He needs to develop moves to change up on the OT. 3-4 outside edge rusher.

#77 Cole Bean OG Catawba – Free agent, short in stature with short arms. Battler/mauler type. Tries to muscle defender. That isn't going to happen the next level. Scrappy undersized OG with limited ability.

#42 Damian Birch DE Fairmont State – Free agent, did not run. Had a left knee strain. 3-4 outside edge rusher.

#40 Toure Carter DC Ashland – Camp player at best. Undersized corner who returns punts and kickoffs. Limited exposure.

#9 Duron Croson RB Fort Valley State – No show Played in Las Vegas Classic.

#72 Khiawatha Downey OG Indiana (PA) – No Show. Played in Las Vegas Classic.

#60 Alan Dunn OG Tusculum – Camp player, won Langer Award as the game's best offensive lineman. Pusher, leaner type blocker. Was driven back – no anchor or balance. Played high and was inconsistent to move feet. Grabs and holds a lot. Struggles with edge speed. Has size, however needs a lot of work.

#25 Craig Duppong RB Wayne State (MI) – Did not play – right ankle sprain.

#20 Ryan Ferguson SS Bentley – Not a prospect, lacks speed.

#29 Cortlandt Florence RB Tuskegee – Camp player only. One speed player. Will need reps.

#3 Michael Glover DC East Stroudsburg – Free agent, undersized corner who may contribute in a nickel or dime package.

#93 Junior Glymph DT Carson Newman – Free agent defensive tackle who needs more upper body bulk and strength. Gets some upfield push. Has long arms that he needs to develop to grab and pull. Arm over, rip, etc. Plays too high and gets rolled out at times. Needs to bend and play low.

#21 Michael Grant DC Mars Hill – Late draft or free agent. Active player who has good awareness. Will throw his body around to make a play. Good ball skills. Physical player who supports the run. Good ball instincts. Quick to read and react. Box type safety. Can't be isolated with speed receivers. Understands the game. Smart heady player who should contribute on special teams.

#7 Will Hall QB North Alabama – Not a prospect, lacks height/weight/ and speed for position. Lacks arm strength. Great intangibles. Harlon Hill winner.

#58 Dan Holland IB Mansfield – Camp player, lacks height/weight/ and speed for position. Good instincts. Active, will be one of last cuts. Good downhill player. Short arms.

#6 Eric Houle KO Saginaw Valley State – Not a prospect, lacks leg strength.

#98 Khanis Hubbard OB Catawba – Late draft or free agent. Active player that finishes play. Will finish long and short pursuit. Likes to play game. Will have to play up if he's going to make it on the next level. Should contribute on special teams. Needs work on all techniques.

#10 Jamel Jackson DC Catawba – Camp player. Fringe prospect that is active. Will lay out for ball. Up quick on run support. Good hands. Had an interception in game. Needs work on all techniques and mechanics. Raw prospect.

#76 Silas Johnson OT Hillsdale – Camp player. Struggles with edge speed. May have to go inside to guard. Big hands but average arm length. Needs tech and mech work.

#48 Bejey Thomas FS Bloomsburg – Free agent with questionable speed. Returns punts. Needs mechanic and technique work.

#80 Landon Trusty TE Central Arkansas – Free agent, possible offensive line projection. Slender lower body, however. Cradle catcher. Plays high because he is so tall. Needs to bend his knees to get under his blocks.

#73 Joe Valvoda OC Edinboro – Not a prospect, slow feet. Lacks height and needs reps – lacks awareness.

#82 Kevin Wolcott WR Tusculum – Camp player. Doesn't play to timed speed. Had 92 catches in 2003. Good sized receiver that needs technique and mechanic work. Had a drop during game. Better than average hands in practice.

#99 Troy Bowers DT Clarion – Not a prospect, lacks height/weight/speed/strength/ and arm length for position.

#9 Montoya Brown RB Ouachita Baptist – Camp type running back with good speed.

#51 Andrew Wagstrom OT South Dakota State – Free agent. Has average athletic ability with a good use of hands. Looked rusty early but projects to an offensive guard. Good mirror and slide. Worked to finish. Needs technique and mechanic work.

#66 James Parham OG Texas A&M Kingsville – Not a prospect, plays high with no knee bend. Waist bender on pass protection. Doesn't move feet.

Cactus Bowl - West

*Note fast times – wind gusts were 10-20 miles per hour. The players ran only one way – with the wind.

#69 Dusty Apocotos PK Cal-Davis – Not a prospect, lacks leg strength.

#11 Phillip Boggs QB Midwestern State – Not a prospect, lacks arm strength but does have some mobility.

#98 Derick Crawford DE Texas A&M-Commerce – Camp player. Has long arms. Active in game.

#4 Romar Crenshaw WR Southeastern Oklahoma – Free agent, possible late draft because of speed. Has inconsistent hands at best. Will drop routine passes, cradles ball, drops deep passes, struggles to adjust to deep ball. May have focus and concentration problems. Returns kickoffs and punts. Undersized receiver with rare speed.

#99 Tommy Edwards DE Arkansas Tech – Not a prospect. Lacks height/weight/speed for position.

#8 Ejiro Evero DC Cal-Davis – Late draft, priority free agent. Has good size, speed, and smarts for position. Will struggle with matchups against big receivers. Raw skills. Needs mechanic and technique work.

#5 Colby Freeman QB Abilene Christian – Camp player/free agent type. Has accuracy problems. Runner, not a passer, very average arm strength.

#43 Josh Gassen OB South Dakota – Not a prospect. Lacks height, weight, and speed.

#90 Roderick Green DE Central Missouri – Draft late. I could see a team taking a chance in the 4th or 5th round. Has rare edge speed. Sudden initial quickness. Did not play in game because of pull in 40's. Pulled right quad. Will need reps and extra learning time. Classic 3-4 rush linebacker. Explodes off ball. Played in Las Vegas Classic. Relentless to ball.

#13 Keith Heckendorf QB St. Cloud State – Camp player. Has below average size for position. He struggled with accuracy in practice.

#28 Justin Kammrad RB Nebraska-Omaha – Not a prospect. One speed guy.

#20 Ryan Krause WR Nebraska-Omaha – Free agent. Big receiver that also played in the Blue/Gray game. Big target over middle. Did not run 40's – left groin strain. Lacks quickness in and out of break. Struggles to separate from defensive backs.

#37 Jason Lee FS Texas A&M-Kingsville – Not a prospect. Undersized player that will need reps.

#2 Moses Lewis WR Central Washington – Free agent. Did not run due to right quad strain. Did not play in game. Played in Las Vegas Classic.

#68 Britt Lively OT Abilene Christian – Camp player. Big wide body. Plays high. Needs to bend his knees and drop his butt. Probably should move inside to guard. Short area player. Short arms. Will need reps.

#17 Rod Malone RB North Dakota State – Not a prospect. Lacks speed.

#80 Eric McDowell DE Missouri Western – Camp player at best. Lacks height, weight, and speed for position. Was the game's MVP because of production. He was productive in college. He had 15 sacks and 24 tackles for loss. Will have to be a project outside linebacker. Has a knack and timing for making the big play. He had 2 sacks, a caused fumble and was disruptive the whole game. Good college player. High motor and relentless to QB.

#7 Demeco Moore IB Mesa State – Camp player, short linebacker who can run and has long arms and big hands. Will need reps. Played in Las Vegas Classic.

#3 Eddie Moten DC Texas A&M-Kingsville – Not a prospect. Lacks height, weight, and speed for position.

#37 Ben Naumen SS Augustana (SD) – No show – groin injury. Played in Blue/Gray Game.

#76 Ben Olson OT North Dakota – Free agent. Left knee MCL strain. Did not run. Former hockey player. Good wall off and position blocker. Smart. Long arms. Plays tall. Inconsistent knee bender. OK mirror and slide. Right tackle and guard prospect.

#56 Kevin Palmer OC Texas A&M-Kingsville – Not a prospect. Lacks height, weight, and speed for position.

Las Vegas Classic - East

#1 Robert Kent QB Jackson State – Late round developmental prospect. Buggy whip delivery. He throws behind the receivers. Needs mechanic and technique work. Good athletic ability. Raw in all skills. Good mobility. Will force ball into coverage. Good set up quickness. He generally played in shot gun in college. Has a good feel for the pocket. Has a live arm. Better in medium to short routes. Played in Blue/Gray game.

#2 Matt Cherry WR Akron – Did not show.

#3 DaShaun Morris WR Delaware State – Free agent. Good hands. Laid out for the ball. Showed great effort in practice. Needs technique and mechanic work in every phase of his game. Seemed to be a willing learner.

#4 Tony Tiller DC East Tennessee State – Late draft. Scrappy defensive back that has good playing awareness. Foot quickness. Can adjust to receiver routes. Takes good angles on run support. Has good ball reactions. Wrap tackler. Willing to support the run. Tough.

#5 Tim Manning WR Jackson State – Free agent, had inconsistent hands in practice and the game. Has deceptive speed. Struggled at times vs. press coverage. Question ball reactions because of drops. Loss of concentration. Did catch 2 slants in game. Inconsistent adjust to flight of ball.

#6 Vegas Robinson LB Virginia Tech – Late/priority free agent. Shorter than ideal with fringe speed for the position. Has average lateral movement and instincts. Made 2 tackles in the game. Needs to protect legs better.

#7 Jeff Krohn QB Massachusetts – Not a prospect. Lacks arm strength. Forced ball into coverage. Below average set up and release. Lacked anticipation and timing with receivers. Lacked zip on his passes. Not a run threat.

#8 Asad Abdul-Khaliq QB Minnesota – Priority free agent. Good mobility. Threw the ball accurately in game though his receiver dropped his ball. Was not consistently accurate in practice. Played the least in the game but had the best showing of the quarterbacks. Brad Banks/Iowa type of quarterback. Can avoid the pass rush with good escapability. Has average arm strength.

#9 Ricky Bryant WR Hofstra – Camp player. Undersized receiver with inconsistent hands in practice. Had one drop in game. Adjusted well to ball in flight.

#10 Allen Suber WR Bethune-Cookman – Camp player at best. Was added to the roster as an athlete. He ended up playing wide receiver. Good athletic ability. Played QB at Bethune-Cookman. Showed good hands in drills but short armed ball going over middle in game. Will need to learn all receiver mechanics and techniques.

#11 Levy Brown DC Florida A&M – Camp free agent that is undersized for corner. Returns punts. Had no where to run in game. Was a wrap up willing tackler. Had average ball skills and speed. Will need reps. Limited range. Has soft hands.

#12 Brandon Hefflin DC Toledo – Free agent. Played well in practice and in game but his lack of speed showed up when he was penalized for face guarding. He has good ball reactions. Played ball in air. Played aggressive on special teams. Can jump. Has playing awareness and better than average foot quickness. Cover corner if faster. Generally stayed with the West receivers. Average height.

#13 Ricky Ricks WR South Carolina – Not a prospect. Big receiver that can't separate from defensive backs.

#15 Scott McMullen QB Ohio State – Not a prospect. Non starter, inconsistent accuracy. Consistently throws into coverage. Most of throws were high and inaccurate. Below average field awareness.

#16 Rayshun Reed DC Troy State – Priority free agent. Aggressive physical corner. Willing on support. Shorter than ideal. Throws body around. Too small for a safety. All skills are average to below average. Played in the Blue/Gray game.

#18 Randee Drew DC Northern Illinois – Free agent/draft late. Feisty, competitive corner that has size match up problems. Quick to read and react. Good athletic ability and timing. Instinctive. Good foot quickness and ability to adjust to routes. Fluid reactions to receiver. Tough but needs help to bring down big WR and TEs. Played in the Blue/Gray game.

#24 Dexter Reid FS North Carolina – 5th/6th round. Active tweener type. Not big enough for safety or fast enough for a corner. Aggressive tackler. Has playing awareness. Has a burst and can close on receiver. Willing on run support.

#25 Joey Harris RB Purdue – Priority free agent. Did not play fall 2003 – ineligible. Showed good balance and flashed a burst. Bender/weaver type runner that can make defenders miss at times. Dropped some balls but overall game was rusty. Has some speed. Weighed in at 214. Generally has good hands. Had a fumble in practice.

#27 Ryan Aiello SS Wisconsin – Camp player. Injured early in game – broke finger on kickoff. Good instincts and playing awareness. Below average back pedal quickness and turning ability. Not a m/m safety. Zone safety with limited range.

#28 Quentin Womack SS Kentucky Wesleyan –Camp player. Struggles to close on ball. Raw in all safety skills and mechanics. Came up quick on support. Was willing. Filled gap on goalline. Has some size and toughness. Will need numerous reps.

#29 Octavius Bond DC Grambling – Not a prospect. Lacks speed. Not eventful in practice or game. Just a guy.

#32 Muhammad Abdulqaadir RB Southern Illinois – Camp player, undersized, quick. Lacks finish speed. Good lateral quickness. Bounces ball outside. Can make defenders miss. Durability will be a question. Good vision, instinctive runner. Elusive.

#35 Matthew Zielinski DT Duke – Priority free agent/late draft. Competes. Thick lower body. Well built upper body. Physically looks like a nose tackle. Good lateral quickness. Good arm length. Draws a lot of double teams and gets rolled out. Good effort in pursuit and finishes play strong. Penetrator. Effective if given one gap responsibility. Quick. Pressures inside and gets push. Will make a team. Tough kid. Must shed better.

#36 Clifford Johnson FS Morgan State – Late draft. Physical player. Made big hits in practice and in game. Has strong safety size. May be a “box” safety. Runs through tackle-impressive. Needs work on foot and ball skills. Has the raw material. Good speed for 6005, 216. Physical presence. Will need repetitions.

#41 Robert Peace LB Tennessee - Draft late. Instinctive player that plays square to the line of scrimmage. Better than average lateral movement. Good use of hands. Effective tackler. Will wrap. Has pass awareness. Better in zone than m/m. good ball reactions.

#42 Duron Croson RB Fort Valley State – Free agent, good sized back with big hands. More of a body catcher. Needs mechanic and technique work in all phases of game. Has average speed for position. More of a power back.

#43 Grant Steen OB/LS Iowa – Free agent. Instinctive, average lateral quickness. Good use of hands to shed blockers. Good tackler, good space tackler and pass awareness. Not a m/m cover linebacker. Good route recognition in zone coverage. Not real fluid or fast. Can't run. May make a team as a long and short snapper if he improves. Rusty in practice.

#44 Luke Lawton FB McNeese State – Late draft. Good blocker that can catch the ball. Tough and effective, can adjust on run to target. Blocks physical inside, outside on pass protection. Durable. Has physical stamina and endurance. Straight line runner. Can adjust to poorly thrown balls. Has good playing speed. Will contribute as a long snapper and on special teams.

#45 Maurice Sonnier OB Louisiana-Monroe – Lacks information. Not enough in practice or game to evaluate.

#47 Jonathan Clark PT Virginia Union – Camp player, 6051, 258. Junior college transfer. All-America TE and punter. Has leg strength. Big man with raw skills. Did a good job of fielding ball on low snaps. He was all over the place on distance and hang in the game, but launched a few in practice.

#51 Antonio Crow OB Louisiana Tech – Priority free agent, shorter than ideal for position-under 6 foot but was all over the field in practice and in the game. Good open field tackler. Quick to read and react. Good instincts – saw screen and was waiting for pass. Good coverage on special teams and made tackle. Has good sideline to sideline speed.

#52 Steve Baggs OB Bethune-Cookman – Free agent. May be a medical although trainers said there is nothing wrong with his ankles to keep him from playing. His ankles look like rubber. Good effort player. Did not stand out as much as he did in Blue/Gray game.

#54 Scott Smith DE Maryland – Priority free agent. Good measurables at 6037, 247 with 34 ½” arms and 10 ¼” hands. Smart player. Was injured at Maryland. Gave good effort in practice. Stuck on blocks at times during 1 on 1. Skills and techniques were rusty but flashed ability. Hicks/Kansas City?

#55 Brandon Calton DT East Tennessee State – Late draft. Good effort to ball. Finishes the play, usually double teamed. Fights pressure and gets some inside push. Won 3 out of 4 one on ones in practice. Good initial quicks and lateral movement. Plays under pads. Average hand use and shed. Instinctive player. Good tackler that is an inside edge player with some power. Played in the Blue/Gray game. Try hard guy.

#60 Chavis Smith OC/OG Tennessee – Free agent. Undersized offensive guard that can also play center. Average initial quickness. Plays a little high with little knee bend. Not an explosive player. Generally maintains contact. Wall off position blocker. Loses anchor vs. power rush when he gets too high.

#61 David Costlow OC Penn State – Not a prospect. Lacks HWS and strength. Below average athletic ability that lacks ability in space. Limited on what he can do in different blocking schemes. Lacks strength and size to anchor against the power rush. Lacks quicks to block edge guy.

#62 Chris Harvey LS/OC Miami – Free agent. Good snapper .72 - .75. Long snapper only. May contribute in camp as a center. Limited athletic ability. Appears to pick up ball on snap. Plays high.

#64 Courtney Morgan OG Michigan – Free agent. Wall off position blocker. Gets driven back when he doesn't bend his knees. Has no anchor. Lacks quickness to block the edge speed rush. Takes good angles to 2nd level and cut linebackers. Better when he uses angles to down block. Short but has good arm length and hand size.

#66 Constantine Ritzman DE Tennessee – Late draft. Outstanding initial quickness. Just learning to play the game. Loses his feet going around corner at times. High motor, good effort player. Has long arms and big hands. Sudden inside moves. Will double move tackle. Situation pass rusher. Won his practice one on one attempts. Beat Morgan and Downey.

#71 Matt McCoy OT Ferris State – Has not practiced for 3 days. Could not evaluate. Looks good on the hoof.

#72 Khiawatha Downey OT Indiana (PA) – Free agent. Transfer from Pittsburgh. Will have to be moved inside to OG. He is short for a tackle at 6033. Low motor guy. Lacks finish and sustain. Doesn't know how to play game. Below average redirect quickness. Late reacting. Inconsistent to move feet. Driven back and beaten inside by #44 Savage. Plays high and loses anchor. Poor angles to 2nd level. Can't handle double move DE. Average arm length.

#74 Erik Faasen OT Toledo – Free agent. Wide body. Wall off position blocker that plays high. Waist bender in pass pro. Doesn't move his feet. Below average initial quickness. Slow on cut off blocks. Has long arms 34 ½" and big hands 10". Smart, gives effort. Limited athlete. 6085, 348.

#75 Bo Lacy OT Arkansas – Late draft. Should move inside to OG. Emergency tackle. Good initial quickness. Finished block on pull. Wall off position blocker. Struggled with edge speed. When he loses knee bend he gets too high and can be leveraged by DE. Average plus on arm length.

#76 Branden Hall OT Troy State – Free agent. Struggles with edge speed. Wall off position blocker. Drops head on pass protection. Inconsistent mirror and slide on pass pro. Plays high with no finish. Clamps you and holds outside frame. Rarely keeps hands inside. Below average hand quickness. Played in Blue/Gray game.

#77 Darrick Sanders OT Arkansas-Monticello – Not a prospect. Has the size and raw materials. He cannot sit down and anchor. Gets too high and gets driven back. Couldn't block McConnell in one on one drills. Lacks foot quickness. Struggled in every phase of his game. Played very little in game. Did finish his pull block.

#78 Augie Hoffman OG Boston College – Free agent. Waist bender. He doesn't move his feet. Can't handle edge speed. Gets leveraged and driven back. Gets run over by bull rush. No anchor.

#79 Gregorgy Walker OT Clemson – Late draft/free agent developmental. Inconsistent player. At times he can sit down and anchor. Other times he has technique and mechanic breakdowns. Struggled with edge speed. Gets up on toes in pass pro. I've seen him play so high he gets put on his back. Wall off position blocker. When he gets on a block he stays with it. Can run a rusher up the field. Big man with long arms.

#80 Omar Jenkins WR Notre Dame – Free agent. Disappointing. Lacks speed. For a guy that played at a high profile program, he didn't practice the way he was coached. Waited on balls. Didn't come back to it. Has good size and big hands. Made a nice low ball catch in practice. Was not a good week for him.

#81 Mark Gallik WR Carroll College – Camp player. Was on the West team. Moved to the East. Small undersized receiver with good quickness and speed. Caught the ball in his hands.

#82 Sean McHugh TE Penn State – Late draft. Can snatch and pluck ball. Practice standout catching ball. Good speed. Good frame to get bigger. Played fullback at Penn State. His future is that of a TE. Runs hard after he catches ball. Good run after catch. Worked to finish blocks. Good block on 2nd level. Every once in a while he'll drop an easy wide open pass. Generally has good hands. Will lay out or catch low ball. Cradles ball at times.

#83 Kyle Acker TE Salisbury State – Free agent. Had a catch in the game. Was there but didn't show up in practice. Was victim of too many players on team.

#84 Chris Chatman WR Midwestern State – Camp tight end. Huge wide receiver. Inconsistent hands. Dropped several routine balls in practice. Should be a TE at 6'04", 246. Has the frame to get bigger. Needs to improve his blocking.

#85 Aaron Hosack WR Minnesota – Priority free agent. Drew Bennett? Catches everything. Big target, 6'05", 208. Long arms 34 ½". Will lay out for the ball. Good hands. Suction cups. Good effort to block downfield. Can catch in a crowd. Hand catcher. Long strider. Not explosive off line. Slot receiver. Not for every team. Good concentration.

#88 Devon Stewart WR Arkansas-Monticello – Not a prospect. Was a productive TE in college. Too small to be a TE. Lacks skills to be a WR. Dropped the ball running a reverse in game. Short arms and small hands.

#89 Nate Lawrie TE Yale – Free agent, good hands. Good adjust to ball. Feisty blocker. Lacks strength and speed. Question balance because of small slender legs. Smart, good size target.

#92 Bryan Williams DT Alcorn State – Free agent. Low motor. Plays high. Flashes quick arm over. Made a tackle laterally on the LOS. Effort left a lot to be desired. Looks the part at 6'05", 317 and 34 ½" arms. Doesn't play low with knee bend. Blockers were always under him. Bo Lacy manhandled him in one on one drills. Not reactive. Below average initial quicks. No leverage. Needs mechanic and technique work on hands one game. No moves, stands tall and pushes.

#93 KT Stovall DE Appalachian State – Free agent. Undersized but explosive defensive end. 3-4 outside rush linebacker. Has good first step quickness. He had 2 sacks and several pressures in game. He beat #74 Scott for a sack. Scott may be their best lineman. Has strong hands. Must beat you with his first move. Struggles against the run. Will use quick inside move.

#96 Ken Veal DT Georgia – Late draft/priority free agent. Undersized. Good effort player with short arms. Always drew a double team. Pushed the pocket. When he got high he got driven by #74 Scott. Made an excellent play on the LOS when he shed #63 and made a tackle for no gain. Explosive on bull rush at times. Has a tougher time with players his size.

#99 Cal Colas DE Virginia Tech – Free agent. Undersized. Knows how to leverage OT's and gets them on skates at times. Must project to an outside linebacker. He must beat you with his first move. Small player that must be in a special scheme.

Las Vegas Classic - West

#1 Sloan Thomas WR Texas – 4th/5th round draft. Good initial quickness and route runner. Good patterns showing quickness into and out of cuts. Sharp cuts. Could separate from these defenders in practice. Was the most polished receiver at the Las Vegas Classic. Good adjust to deep ball. Can make the overhead catch. Generally a hand catcher but will cradle at times. Will go into middle.

#3 David Mikell RB Boise State – Priority free agent. Small running back with good vision. Fumbled a toss sweep in the game. Cutback runner with good running instincts. Catches the ball in his hands. Has quickness to the hole. Undersized for being an effective blocker. Should do well in a camp if he holds up because he understands passing game.

#4 Andrico Hines QB Middle Tennessee – Camp player. Throws better on the run. Mobile. Can avoid the rush. Will need repetitions to learn offense and read coverages. Not accurate in drop back.

#5 Brandon Warfield RB Fresno State – Draft 6th/7th round. Compact build. Strong lower body. Keeps his legs driving on contact. Explosive through hole. Cut back runner with a burst. Not easy to tackle. Instinctive runner. Can make defenders miss. Has good hands and run after catch. Fights for every yard. Good vision. Runs strong and hard. Another Utah sleeper back?

#6 Chris Pittman WR Colorado State – No show

#7 Michael Hanley DC Murray State – Camp player. Played the deep ball in the air. Small undersized corner that will need repetitions.

#8 Dwight Counter WR New Mexico – Not a prospect. Good sized receiver 6011, 193. Catches ball in his body. Lacks playing speed.

#9 Brandon Ratcliff SS New Mexico – Not a prospect. 5111, 205. Will need repetitions. Marginal speed, awkward footwork. Watches QB in man to man coverage – not WR.

#10 Moses Lewis WR Central Washington – Free agent, developmental player. Good sized receiver with big hands. Needs mechanic and technique work. Has raw speed. Runs upright. High in and out of break. Will lay out for ball. Did not separate from defensive backs.

#11 Chance Harridge QB Air Force – Not a prospect. Small option QB that lacks HWS for position and arm strength.

#12 Jason Fife QB Oregon – Free agent. Inconsistent short or long accuracy. His throws were all over the place in practice and game. High, low, behind receiver. Inconsistent the whole week. Has good size. Has some mobility to elude rush. Steps up in pocket.

Question poise in game situations. Judgement is questionable. Has a feel for the pocket. Average arm strength.

#14 Drew Dunning K Washington State – Free agent. Kicked off from 30 yard line. NFL rules – ball went to 12 yard line. Tough to get hang time because of poor film. Just a guy in practice. Did not kickoff for Washington State. Lacks leg strength. Solid on field goals under 50 yards.

#15 Ryan Flanigan QB UC-Davis – Not a prospect. Lacks arm strength and accuracy. Pushes the ball. Big QB that needs technique work. Ball dies on out routes.

#16 Gilbert Rocha PT Cal Poly – Not a prospect. Lacks leg strength. Averaged 39.6 yards for year. Hang times in practice and games were not good.

#17 Billy Strother OB New Mexico – Priority free agent. Undersized linebacker that was in on two tackles in the game. Athletic 5114, 233. He gets covered up because of size. He must play in a reduced scheme. A nickel linebacker. Gets beat by big tight ends in seam.

#18 Patrick Crayton WR Northwest Oklahoma State – Late draft/priority free agent. 6001, 202. Came to game as an athlete and was placed at wide receiver. One of the best athletes on the team. Returned punts in game. Quick learner. Good athletic ability. Smooth athlete.

#19 Courtney Anderson TE San Jose State – Late draft. Huge target. High cut, must work and bend his knees to stay low as a blocker. Good adjust to the ball. Has good hands. Effective on down blocks. Seals the corner. Doesn't get many yards after catch.

#20 Andre Raymond RB/RS Eastern Illinois – Free agent. 5103, 204. One speed running back that returns kickoffs and punts. Average quicks. Has vision and running instincts. Inside runner that has a burst to the hole. Not a power runner. Catches the ball well out of the backfield. Has good hands.

#21 Wes Nurse FS Boise State – Not a prospect. Undersized free safety that didn't get many repetitions in game or practice. Below average hands.

#22 David Richardson DC Cal Poly – Draft 4th/5th round. Best defensive back in game. Suffocates receivers. Good playing awareness. Has good foot quickness. Has the ability to maintain cushion. Has a burst out of turn to close on receiver. Is smooth in transition. Good press ability in man to man coverage. Good ball awareness. Good ball reactions and range. Willing to run support. Good tackler. Effective tackler on special teams. Good timing. Raw. 6002, 193. Natural knee bender.

#23 Jonas Rutledge DC SMU – Free agent. Undersized corner 5095, 181. Up quick on support. Willing tackler. Struggles with matchups when paired with big receivers. Question speed.

#24 Marvin Jackson DC Chadron State – Free agent. Undersized corner or nickel back. Smooth in movement and transition. Needs mechanic and technique work. Good on special teams. Tackle on punt team – face up tackle. Played ball in air effectively. Played in Blue/Gray game.

#25 Bryce McGill SS Fresno State – Free agent. Aggressive hitter. Willing on support. Was a safety that was moved to outside linebacker 5096, 211. Struggles in coverage against receivers. A box type safety that is not for everyone. Physical and has ability.

#33 Derrick Cash SS Baylor – Not a prospect. Below average foot quickness and ability to adjust to routes. Made a tackle on punt team. Has long arms. Below average body control and balance. Limited range. Below average ball reactions.

#34 Jermaine Green RB Washington State – Priority free agent. Good sized back 5102, 221. Was very good during first few days of practice but tailed off. Flashed a burst and ability to break tackles. Drops his shoulder and runs through tackles. North/south runner. Drives legs on contact. Quick into hole. Only thing that is consistent is his performance inconsistencies. Can make you miss.

#36 Sidney Wiley FS New Mexico – Not a prospect. Small undersized safety. Got beat on double moves.

#44 Josh Savage DE Utah – Draft 6th/7th round. High motor, great effort edge player. Good size 6040, 273 with big hands. During game he played a contain rush position. Can accelerate off block to QB. Gets a good inside push. Quick to close down line. Uses double moves. Plays hard every down.

#45 Monte Coleman DE Air Force – Not a prospect. Undersized defensive end.

#48 Cody Spencer IB North Texas – 6th/7th round. Active. Good instincts. Good lateral movement. Takes good angles on outside run. High motor, compete player with limited athletic ability. Try hard guy. Better in zone coverage but can run with most tight ends. Needs more depth in zone pass drops. Played in Blue/Gray game.

#52 Matt McFadden OB Weber State – Not a prospect. 6011, 229. Below average athlete that has fringe speed. Good hustle on special teams.

#55 Shane Lehmann OG UCLA – Not a prospect. Lacks anchor strength. 5114, 293.

#56 DeMeco Moore IB Mesa State – Free agent. 5112, 237. Active. Downhill player that works through traffic effectively. Sideline to sideline player. Long arms and big hands. Tough kid. Played with more intensity in this game over the Cactus Bowl.

#57 Levi Madarieta OB BYU – Free agent/late draft. 6016, 241. Was active on special teams and in game. Short arms to ward off blocks – 30 ½”. Flashed explosiveness on contact. Made a tackle on kickoff team and punt team Had a nose for the ball. Good lateral movement. Effective and productive tackler. Could get more depth on pass drops.

#63 Trevor Hutton OG Utah State – Not a prospect. Plays high. Scrappy at times. Can't handle speed and quickness. Beat inside by #96. Lacks strength and athletic ability. Undersized. Someone may try him at center.

#66 Toby Cecil OC Texas Tech – Priority free agent/late draft. Played mostly in shot gun in college. He will have to make the transition to stepping and snapping to quarterback. He got better as the week went on. Showed no anchor in one on ones but competed. Needs to get strength. Helps offensive guards. Good awareness. Good seal on down blocks. Walls middle linebacker. High on double team. #90 McConnel and #95 Save leveraged him back in team drills. Cecil did not look good but he was determined to get better and is a big compete guy. He was disappointing because he started 44 games. Crafty center that has size 6035, 294 and smarts. Big hands and short arms.

#71 Lenny Vandermade OC USC – Free agent. Undersized 6020, 275. Physical player. Good on block back. Short arms. Was 2-2 in one on ones. Has good critical factors – quickness, leverage, recovery, reach and seal, sustain, linebacker adjust and pull. Will have problems with power rush and big guys on his nose at OC or OG. Limited growth potential.

#72 Chris Rhodes OT Weber State – Free agent. Plays high. Was 2-2 in the one on ones but he held and got his hands outside the frame. Has the size for a tackle 6053, 312. Long arms 35" and big hands 10 ½", but is limited by his athletic ability and functional strength.

#73 Dominic Furio OC New Mexico – Free agent. Physical player that works to finish blocks. Aggressive. Effective at helping guards. Good awareness. Plays with a good pad level. Shorter than ideal 6017, 301. Has short arms 30 ¼".

#74 Jake Scott OT Idaho – 4th round. Best overall lineman in the Las Vegas Classic game. Excellent redirect. Smooth in his mirror and slide. Effective and smart on cut off angles to second level. Could play any position on the line. Seals the backside. Gets hands up quickly and inside defenders. Good in space. Good body control. Knee bends with good technique. Sudden movement on ball. Good quickness after start. Plays with a good base and leverage. Good balance. Has some uncoil explosiveness. Adjust and recovery is outstanding. Can position and turn defender. Maintains contact. Quick to position and seal off. Has the quickness to maintain contact. Adjusts to movement, finishes block. Good downfield effort. Follows through on short and long pull. Adjusts on run. Good hand use and quickness. Can sit and anchor on power rush. Stops push. Can take away speed rush and inside move. Smart, intelligent player. John Fina type. 6046, 280. He plays with leverage to compensate for lack of bulk. Eventual NFL starter at center or some spot along line. Big hands. Average arm length.

#75 Larry Kinnard OT Mt. Union – Not a prospect. Plays high. No anchor. Gets walked back into quarterback. Hops in pass pro. Gives up too much ground. Beat off edge. Lacks foot quickness. Best for sack off edge. Beaten in one on ones.

#76 Forest Vance OT UC-Davis – Priority free agent. Must move inside to guard. Beat off edge for a sack. Wall off position blocker. Needs technique and mechanic work. Above average athlete that can position, wall off, and slide his feet. Can run DE by QB. Must get used to speed at higher level. Needs more anchor strength. Inconsistent finish and sustain. Needs better use of hands.

#77 Nicholas Zuniga OG North Texas – Camp player. Struggles to block edge speed. Below average quickness. Lacks anchor strength. Works to mirror and slide his feet. Effort player with limited ability. Bends his knees. Scrappy, will work to finish block. Effective walling off players in this game. May have hope as a center only guy. Short man, short arms.

#78 Thomas Herrion OG Utah – Draft 6th/7th round. Has all the tools but plays undisciplined at times. Will compete. Has the strength to stop a charge. Second best lineman after Jake Scott. Walls off and position defender. Effective on fold blocks and pulls but needs to be quicker. Stays on his feet. Can adjust. Strong. Completely overpowered DTs at times. Worked to finish and sustain. Slides his feet well at left tackle in game. Good initially but will lose his knee bend and gets too high at times. Always blocks or mauls somebody. Has brute strength. Not pretty but gets the job done. He manhandled #55 Calton in game. May need reps. He didn't keep hands inside defenders in one on ones. Had some technique breakdowns.

#79 Isaiah Ross OG Nevada-Reno – Camp player. Small area guy. Not a space player. Needs technique and mechanic work. Mauler. Physical player that gives effort. Overextends and goes to ground as a run blocker at times. Was beat for a sack by #35 Zelinski. Wall off position blocker. Struggles with edge speed. Shorter than ideal with short arms. Will compete.

#80 Travon Magee TE Kansas State – Priority free agent. Huge tight end, 6047, 279 with long arms. Will need reps. Waist bender type blocker. Inconsistent to move feet. Plays high and without leverage as a blocker. Can pluck the ball. Developmental project. Looks the part. Needs mechanic and technique work in every phase of the game. Average speed. Slow twitch guy.

#81 Clarence Moore WR Northern Arizona – Late draft. Status will depend on speed. Big smooth receiver. Laid out for several low ball catches. Can reach and extend for ball. Needs work on route running and nuances of receiver play but has raw skills. Slot type receiver, 6053, 200. Long arms 34 3/8". Was a hand catcher in practice. Will compete for ball.

#83 Marque Davis WR Fresno State – Free agent. Undersized wide receiver that catches the ball in his hands. Quick in and out of cuts. Lacks deep speed. Medium and short area receiver.

#84 David Relf WR UNLV – Not a prospect. Backup receiver at UNLV. Small receiver with limited skills.

#86 Adam Stecker TE Air Force – Not a prospect. Waist bender as a blocker. Over extends and goes to ground as a run blocker. Dropped a seam pass in game. Double catches ball. Does not have good hands.

#88 Malcolm Floyd WR Wyoming – Late draft/priority free agent. Big target, good adjust to ball. Can pluck and snatch ball with hands. Had a good week of practice. Did not see him in the game. 6044, 207. Has good speed. Has overall inconsistencies at times.

#90 Aaron McConnell DT Pittsburg State - Late draft. Flashes explosiveness. High motor great effort player. Sudden quickness into gaps. Penetrator. Constantly pressured quarterbacks. Was downfield to cover punts. Fights double teams. Whipped #78 Hoffman like a rented mule. Will be effective in certain schemes. Short arms. Was 6-2 in one on ones. Good bull rush and leverage plays.

#92 Vince Babin DE Tuskegee – Not a prospect. Lacks edge speed. Was stuck on blocks. Consistently walled off. Lacks strength to play run.

#93 Roderick Green DE Central Missouri – 4th/5th round. Sudden situation pass rusher. Has a rare burst off edge. Quick upfield acceleration. Has no respect or regard for the run. Runs to ball. Disruptive player. Out of control at times. Gets dumb penalties. Will need numerous reps and player friendly defensive scheme that limits his responsibilities. Short arms. Will contribute on special teams. (Garry Stills, Kansas City).

#95 Bryan Save DT Colorado State – Free agent. One gap player type that will fight double teams. Good pursuit angle. Not fast but gives effort. Pressured QB, beat #64 Morgan on a regular basis. Short arms.

#96 Ifo Pili DT BYU – Priority free agent. Fights pressure upfield. Push the pocket type guy. Lacks long speed. Interior gap plugger. 6020, 331. Good arm length. Not real instinctive. Average initial quickness and lateral movement. Plays high, not real explosive. Power rusher.

#99 Linnis Smith DE Texas A&M – Free agent. One speed player that lacks quickness. Low motor guy that doesn't play with any technique. Has had flashes of ability in past but is inconsistent. 6033, 290, long arms. Looks the part. Boom – steps up game and play with his God-given ability or Bust – getting on with his life's work. Ability when he plays warrants draftable grade, but inconsistencies are too great.

Senior Bowl

Quarterbacks

Philip Rivers North Carolina State – 6047, 226, 1st round. May be the top QB in draft. Top competitor. Buys time with his feet. He keeps the play alive. Good accuracy. Smart and a good leader. Took charge in practice. ACC player of the year. MVP in 4 bowl games. Gunned seam route in for TD. Excellent game manager with a quick release. Loves the game and plays like it. Makes good decisions. Smooth efficient rhythm passer. Made a great adjustment to receivers in game. His timing was on in practice and in the game. Excellent poise. Performed under game pressure. Good judgment and field vision. Clutch player that delivered big plays and displayed confidence. Defensive recognition was excellent. Pre snap reads took him to his receiver immediately. (Limited coverages made his job easy. He looked like a surgeon slicing up the secondary). Has a quick set up and release from center. Has good pocket presence and feel. Outstanding delivery quickness. Has a quick and live arm. Excellent anticipation and timing. Has good eyes for the field. Has the arm strength to make all the throws to win games. Can stretch a secondary deep or make all the medium and short touch passes. Can put the ball through the window of defense. Can adjust throw and vary delivery. Both velocity and trajectory. Don't worry about delivery – he shows you the baby. Has a lot of Brett Favre in him. Played in the shotgun in college. Made a good adjustment to take snap directly from under center. He gets the ball there in time. Has excellent ball placement. Has outstanding poise to wait until the last second and guns ball in there. Has outstanding field awareness and can shred a blitz. He demonstrates coverage and poise to throw the ball into tight spots. He does an excellent job of working the pocket when it is collapsing around him. He competes. Knows and understands the game. He gives the receivers a chance to run after catch by his accuracy and ball placement. Keep in mind Dan Marino's delivery wasn't pretty.

J.P. Losman Tulane – 6022, 217, late 1st round. Quick set up. Good athletic ability. Has arm strength to make all the throws. Good mechanically although he throws across body at X. Can elude rush. Quick set up. Moves away from trouble. No wasted motion on his throws. Will hold ball too long at times. Can improve his anticipation.

Cody Pickett Washington – 6033, 227, 3rd/4th round. Has good touch on short and medium passes. Good poise and is an effective runner. Has good velocity on his passes. Throws quick rhythm passes the best. Ball control passer. Has a quick release. Can adjust his throws according to looks. Good athlete that can make plays with his feet. Rusty in practice because of layoff.

Matt Schaub Virginia – 6054, 237, 4th/5th round. Ball control passer. Has average arm strength. Accurate in short and medium pass routes. Throws into coverage despite his intelligence. He appears to make most of his mistakes when he's heavily rushed. Has limited mobility. Most of success is with the short dink and dunk passes. Good on screens. Lacks long accuracy. Backup type quarterback.

John Navarre Michigan – 6053, 249, 4th/5th round. Accuracy off in bowl practices and game. System timing passer. Not real mobile. Will sidestep rush. Gets a lot of passes tipped because he drops the ball down on delivery. Better accuracy on short and medium passes. He hangs the deep ball. Streaky QB. Deadly when he gets hot. Will throw into coverage. Will compete. Big right handed QB. Inconsistent accuracy. Accuracy depends on timing. Is he Elvis Grbac or Todd Collins?

Josh Harris Bowling Green – 6010, 235, late draft/free agent. System quarterback. Lacks accuracy in practice and game. Mobile. Has the ability to scramble for positive yards. Was effective and productive in their shot gun offense. Developmental type QB that has an average release. Question decisions.

Tight Ends

Ben Watson Georgia – 6033, 253, 1st/2nd round talent. Good athlete that works to maintain working contact. Good adjust to a poorly thrown pass. Catches the ball in his hands. Can beat man to man coverage. Good initial quickness. Can escape press. Has a downfield burst. Has quickness in and out of cuts. Can separate from defender. Good hands. Can catch in a crowd and has good run after catch. Has the speed to take it to the house.

Chris Cooley Utah State – 6033, 257, 4th/5th round. Good route runner. Versatile TE, H-back, fullback. Can adjust block on run. Has frame to get bigger. Reminds me of Ken Dilger when he came out of Illinois. Speed is question mark (as it was with Dilger). Good hands. Long snapper. Average was in the low .75 range. Good coverage recognition. Quick in and out of cuts. Finds holes in void area. Crafty in and out of cuts to separate. Good ball reactions. Can adjust to bad pass. Soft hands. Can make the tough catch. Gets some RAC yards.

Kris Wilson Pittsburgh – 6016, 246, Free agent. Undersized tight end that is not a big target. Hard for QB to see down the field. Screen off, wall off type blocker. Journeyman type TE (Luther Broughton). Average speed. Has inconsistent to separate from defender. Can track ball. Good concentration. Will reach and extend for ball. Can catch in crowd. Body catcher at times. Lacks overall size to be an effective blocker. Needs to improve ball security.

Ronnie Ghent Louisville – 6023, 244, Free agent. Inconsistent hands. Lacks blocking strength. Tries to position and wall off defender. Receiver only type tight end that was not impressive in practice or the game.

Running Backs

Greg Jones Florida State – 6013, 250, 1st round. Powerful running back. Bruising, punishing back. Big and strong. Runs through arm tackles. Good cutback vision. Brings power and strength to running game. Runs with chest over toes. Physical runner that runs with balance and effort. Knee may not be 100 percent. Needs to be checked. Wants to be a RB, not a fullback. Flashed some punishing blocks. Chiseled out of granite.

Julius Jones Notre Dame – 5095, 208, 2nd round. Good vision and inside cutting ability. Has good hands. Physical back that makes defenders miss. Cut blocker on pass protection but will also stay in your face. Compact runner that returns kickoffs. Determined runner with good effort. Has an explosive burst around the corner. Strong runner with good cutting ability. Good hands to catch the balls out of backfield. Keeps legs driving on contact. Hits hole quickly. Dynamic player. Fights way through defense – he didn't have a lot of running room. Can break tackles with speed and strength. Can make defenders miss. Good all around back that can contribute on special teams.

Cedric Cobbs Arkansas – 6001, 217, draft 3rd round. Slams ball up inside. Good blocker. Slasher that is deceptively fast. Has speed and strength. Thick butt and thighs. Has power and acceleration. Breaks tackles. Not easy to tackle. Check hamstring problem. Catches ball in his hands. Has off field problems. Returns kickoffs.

Mewelde Moore Tulane – 5105, 205, 3rd round. Quick into hole, good vision. Slips tacklers. Good cutting ability. Instinctive runner. Patient and runs to daylight. Good balance. Gets to outside with cutting ability. Runs good patterns. Can separate from defenders. Understands the passing game. Good athlete. Can adjust to poor pass. Good hands. Can catch ball away from body. Has stamina and endurance.

Michael Turner Northern Illinois – 5102, 237, draft 4th/5th round. Worked at fullback during the week. Body catches passes. One speed guy that can avoid tacklers. Doesn't play with 4.40 speed. Pick and slide type runner with some slash at times. Slows to cut. Runs hard between tackles. Bounces ball to outside. Doesn't trust his speed. More deliberate than explosive. Average initial quickness.

Tatum Bell Oklahoma State – 5105, 201, 4th round. More of a one back set type back without the size. Quick to line of scrimmage. Upright back that is more of a straight line runner. Can run the zone, stretch play wide, and burst around the corner. Question vision at times. Hits the seams in the defense. Average blocker that can pick up the blitz but also absorbs contact.

Thomas Tapeh Minnesota – 6010, 243, 5th/6th round. One back set type that plays fullback. Good receiver out of backfield. Can reach and extend for ball. Can break tackles after catch. Willing blocker. Has vision and cutting ability. Big back that is tough to tackle. Effective at blocking corner support. Will position/wall off block. Seals inside on perimeter. Tackle to tackle runner. Good body lean. Straight line runner. Born in Liberia.

Brandon Johnson Auburn – 5104, 230, 5th/6th round. Fullback. Tough guy that will get a lick on defender. Effective cut and roll blocker. Role in offense is that of a blocker and underneath receiver. Has good hands.

Shaun Williams Alabama – 5074, 184, late round/free agent. Undersized running back. Flashes good quickness and vision into hole. Good adjust to poor pass. Squirts through holes. Returns punts. Some pick. Has strength for a small back. Good lateral quickness. Durability will be questioned at 184 pounds. Quicker than fast. Gets buckled as a blocker.

Lousaka Polite Pittsburgh – 5113, 244, free agent. Pulled hamstring first day. Looked slow before he pulled.

Wide Receivers

Michael Jenkins Ohio State – 6042, 217, 2nd round. Big receiver with good hands. Strong physical player that can break tackles. Generally reliable and consistent catcher but dropped one of Navarre's best throws in game. Conversely, he made an excellent catch behind him. Can pluck and snatch ball. Can get off of bump coverage. Picks up speed as he gets downfield. Deceptive speed. Can escape press. Increases speed with stride. Good route runner. Good ball reaction and focus. Can make the physical adjustment to ball in air. Has good jumping ability. Misplayed fade in Senior Bowl game. Has courage to go over middle. Will make the tough catch. Good quickness in and out of routes. Was born to run the slant pass.

Devery Henderson LSU – 5112, 191, 1st round talent. Explosive in and out of cuts. Lightning in a bottle. Can turn a short hitch into a big gainer. Has instant acceleration and burst. Makes plays. Outstanding body control. Will compete. Will catch the ball in a crowd. Good downfield blocking effort. Returns kickoffs. Former running back that has track speed. Sudden upfield burst. Dangerous on screens and reverses. Can track ball overhead. Hand catcher. Will pluck and underextend for ball. Has the lower body strength to break tackles.

Keary Colbert USC – 6006, 199, 1st round talent that may go 2nd/3rd round. Excellent vision and adjust to ball. Will reach and extend for ball away from body. Can pluck and snatch ball. Has confidence in his hands. A complete receiver. Has courage to go over middle. Wants to and makes tough catch. Can catch ball thrown behind him. Explosive, consistent receiver with strong hands. Has good jumping ability and timing. Slippery receiver that makes you miss. Has a quick upfield burst. Quickness in and out of cuts. Rarely drops ball. Catches ball at high point. Clutch, go-to guy that is the total package. Confident.

Ernest Wilford Virginia Tech – 6035, 220, 2nd/3rd round. Big physical receiver that showed good body control and run after catch. Will reach and extend away from body for the ball. Big target on slant routes. Hand catcher that flashes quickness to get up the field. Can make physical adjustment to ball high or low. Has good jumping ability. Doesn't appear to be a natural catcher but makes the catch. Good effort on downfield blocking. Covers up defensive backs with his size.

James Newson Oregon State – 6005, 203, 2nd/3rd round ability – 7th round speed. Good hands to reach and extend for ball. Will layout for the low ball. Can make body adjustment for overhead catch. Strong run after catch. Has good size and will compete in a crowd for the ball. Good route runner. Uses good body control on sideline. Reliable receiver. Physical player that will go over the middle for ball. Will be a solid 2nd or 3rd team receiver. Confident in his ability. Made tackle on kickoff team. Inconsistent to drive back to the ball at times.

Jerricho Cotchery North Carolina State – 6002, 199, 2nd/3rd round. Caught everything in practice. Outstanding natural hands. Confident. Can make the low hand catch. Will catch ball in crowd. Competes. Very good route runner and will double move defensive backs. Good blocker that will stay after you. Tough guy that will go over middle for the ball. Runs hard after catch – picks up RAC yards. Doesn't appear to have deep track speed but is sneaky and smart to get behind secondary. Can adjust routes on run. Doesn't get help up on press coverage. Gets separation with moves. Has excellent ball reactions. Good focus and concentration. Can get off of press coverage with strength and athletic ability. Accelerates as he goes down the field. Flashes speed and quickness in and out of cuts. Good ball reactions. Can track the ball. Good vision. Can adjust to badly thrown ball. Can be a 2nd or 3rd receiver next level. Needs to be a little more consistent but he can make plays. Needs to concentrate and focus on every play but he is a talent.

Justin Jenkins Mississippi State – 5112, 208, 3rd/4th round. Hand catcher that returns punts. Dropped a seam pass from Navarre. In the game he caught a pass and ran strong after catch for a 30 yard gain. Built like a running back. Can make the overhead catch. Can catch the ball over the middle tough receiver. Strong receiver. Has the speed to get deep. Flashes explosiveness. Great player on a poor team. Has 1st step quickness. Can get off of press coverage with strength and athletic ability. Accelerates as he goes down the field. Flashes speed and quickness in and out of cuts. Good ball reactions. Can track the ball. Good vision. Can adjust to badly thrown ball. Can be a 2nd or 3rd receiver next level. Needs to be a little more consistent but he can make plays. Needs to concentrate and focus on every play but he is a talent.

Maurice Brown Iowa – 6000, 212, 4th/5th round talent but may go lower because of ankle. Ankle not yet 100 percent – injured in Iowa State game 2003. Can pluck and snatch ball away from body. Will lay out for the ball. Physical receiver that can break tackles after catch. Was not sharp in routes due to ankle. He was dragging his foot a little bit. Has good body control. Will catch the square in over the middle. Needs to improve blocking consistency. Will catch ball in traffic. Can make the overhead catch. Flashes of Musin Muhammad.

Johnnie Morant Syracuse – 6040, 225, late draft because of size. Short stepper. Big upright receiver that is inconsistent and plays too angular. Hands are inconsistent. Can make a tough catch then drop the routine catch. Lacks quickness in and out of breaks.

Triandos Luke Alabama – 5107, 189, 5th/6th round. Good hands. A hand catcher. Lacks strength to break tackles after catch. Will layout for the low ball catch. Quick in and out of break. Can make the overhead catch. Can track the ball. Had some drops in practice. Struggled vs. press coverage to get off jam. Has speed to be a 3rd receiver the next level.

BJ Johnson Texas – 5115, 207. Injured. Did not play. See Las Vegas Classic notes.

Senior Bowl

Defensive Line - North

Tim Anderson Ohio State – 6032, 304, Draft 2nd round. Good athlete. Good lower body. Good effort plugger. Fills the gaps and running lanes. Also played DE in the game. Draws the double teams inside. Stacks up and creates pile. Aggressive player with a great attitude. Plays with good leverage. Quick and strong. Competes. Always moving and pressuring play. Disruptive player. Excellent instincts. Old time player that plays every play.

Darrell Campbell Notre Dame – 6035, 292, Draft 3rd round. Pushes pocket. Gets hung up on block. Can stack and control blocker with hands but needs to separate. Gets hands up on pass rush. Pressures QB. Intense player that finishes and will chase play. Has long arms and big hands. Penetrator type lineman. Not a take on guy. Needs to separate better.

Jordon Carstens Iowa State – 6056, 298, Draft 3rd round. High motor player. Gives effort and hustle on every play. Good inside push. Good initial quickness. Frame to get bigger. Draws inside double teams. Holds his ground. Has the ability to play DT, DE, or OT as a projection. Smart player that does what is coached. Will get high and washed down at times. Will play somewhere. Shorter arms than ideal.

Dwan Edwards Oregon State – 6026, 309, Draft 2nd round. Inside push player. Majors in the bull rush. Explosive at times. Quick arm over. Good lateral quickness. Plays on his feet. Has good instincts and feel inside. Presses the pocket. Plays square to the line of scrimmage. High motor fast twitch player.

Travis Laboy Hawaii – 6034, 258, Draft 4th/5th round. Pass rush specialist. Edge speed rusher. Quick first step. Has the speed and quickness to run corner. Good laterally. May be a 3 – 4 rush end. Makes his plays in movement stunts, twists, etc. Disruptive player who can get up the field. Will run around blocks. No regard for run.

Shawn Phillips Purdue – 6027, 252, Draft 5th/6th round. Edge speed. Situation pass rusher. Fights pressure in the running game. Brings pressure from outside. Good effort to rush quarterback. Doesn't stay blocked. Has first step quickness like ND Kalu. May lack long speed.

Antonio Smith Oklahoma State – 6030, 266, Draft 5th/6th round. Plays both right and left end. More of a run stopper than a pass rusher. Good athletic ability. Will use arm over and bull rush on pass rush. Good initial quickness. Has a tendency to get caught inside. Good chase player from the backside. Narrow stance. He lines up wide. Gets upfield quickly but out of control. Question instincts. He must see ball to run to it. Wired to Bubin #73 in one on ones.

Isaac Sopoaga Hawaii – 6023, 321, Draft 4th/5th round. Thick lower body. Pushes the pocket. Good initial quickness. One move player. If he doesn't get the tackle he hustles to the ball. Plays high. His first step is up so he gets caught by blockers. Good instincts. Will only be as good as scheme he's in – can anchor and hold his ground.

Defensive Line – South

Nathaniel Adibi Virginia Tech – 6031, 255, Draft 4th round. Good lateral quickness. Makes plays on movement stunts – twists, etc. Gets stuck on blocks. Flashes explosiveness and leverage but is not consistent. Appears to be more athlete than football player. Low motor guy that doesn't appear to understand game at times. Has raw tools.

David Ball UCLA – 6054, 276, Draft 4th round. Good effort player that makes sacks and negative yard plays. Plays with effort. Had a tackle for loss in game when he made play on reverse. Gets stuck on blockers. Aggressive. Will compete. Could work at right or left end. Basically a power edge rusher. Steady, not sudden.

Darnell Dockett Florida State – 6034, 292, Draft 2nd round. Explosive first step quickness. Shoots the gap. If he doesn't make play he gets bounced around. When he gets double teamed he gets rolled out because he doesn't stay low. No anchor to stack play on line of scrimmage. Disruptive player when he beats first blocker. Good athlete. Could be special in certain defensive schemes. If he doesn't make the play, he leaves a big hole.

Tommy Kelly Mississippi State – 6057, 302, Low draft. Passes eyeball test. Looks the part. Appears to lack instincts, awareness, and desire to play as an everydown player. Flash guy – boom or bust. Has good initial quickness. Gets hands up on pass rush. Better player tackle to tackle. Gets velcroed to offensive tackles. When he wants to bring it he is sudden. Not a hell bent for leather player in pursuit. May be better at DT if he shows some fight. Looks like he's playing to do everyone a favor.

Chad Lavalais LSU – 6015, 293, Draft 3rd/4th round. size may push him to 4th round. Understands leverage. Inside war horse. Quick first step. Pushes the pocket. Good effort player. Gets hands up on pass rush. Good agility in traffic. Fills the running lanes. Finishes play downfield. Has a burst to QB. Plays with good leverage. Can drive center back to QB at times. Sudden initial quickness. Always on the move. Great effort and pressure. High motor emotional player. Works from start to finish.

Rodney Leisle UCLA – 6030, 302, Draft 4th/5th round. Inside push guy. Good lateral quickness. Gets driven out of hole when he plays too high. Aggressive player that has an upfield burst. Can be disruptive inside. Finished long and short pursuit. Active player. Big hands and short arms. Best when playing on the edge of a blocker. Gets wired to blocker at times because of short arms.

Bobby McCray Florida – 6054, 252, Draft 6th/7th round developmental project. Gets stuck and manhandled on blocks. Slow off ball. Makes a play when he's not blocked. Slow twitch guy. He can be hammered the whole game than come up with a sack by accident. Usually not blocked. Looks the part and is athletic.

DeMarco McNeil Auburn – 6012, 306, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Rolled up on left ankle. Did not play in game. In limited practice time DeMarco showed good effort and hustle. Has a quick first step. Plays on his feet. Has a funny shaped body but has good balance. Good lateral quickness. Generally plays with good leverage. quick to shed and find ball. Has a burst after initial contact. Good use of hands and feet in pass rush.

Offensive Linemen

Alex Stepanovich Ohio State – 6032, 301, Draft 2nd round. Intelligent crafty player. Can play OC, OG, and OT. Best at center. Has strong hands and keeps a good base. Quick to position and wall off defender. Has a powerful punch. Competitive. Good initial quickness. Plays lower than defender. Explosive. Can adjust and recover. Locks on defender. Quick to reach and seal. Good downfield effort. Effective on short pulls. Good use of hands and hand quickness. Can anchor. Good leverage player.

Jake Grove Virginia Tech – 6032, 300, Draft 2nd round. Versatile player. Could play OC and OG. Physical player. Thick and stout. Can sit down and anchor. Position, wall off blocker that will finish block. Does both shot gun and conventional snap. Maintains a good base when mirror and sliding against defender. Uses all his limbs and body to block you. Plays game on his feet. A throwback player. Good use of hands. Good initial quickness.

Nick Leckey Kansas State – 6026, 290, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Can play both OC and OG. Will compete. Works to finish and sustain block. Good use of hands to screen off and wall off defender. Maintains contact. Runs his feet on contact. Physical player on 2nd level. Great effort player. Good combo blocker. Leaks through and explodes on linebackers. Has a good punch. Good double team blocker. Takes good downfield angles on 2nd and 3rd levels. Gets his power from his bent knees and legs. Can dominate inside blocking. Good adjust on run when trapping. Active player. Good in space.

Stephen Peterman LSU – 6036, 312, Draft 2nd round. Offensive guard. Physical player, good punch. Not smooth but finishes block. Good on down blocks. Good combo blocker. Battler that will maul you. Will sustain his fold blocks. Effective on double team. Was beat by #98 Edwards in game when he dropped his head. Takes good angles to second level. High in pull but makes the block. Quick on cut block. Can manhandle opponent. Good use of hands. Effective to fold or log linebacker. Bends knees in pass pro. Stays on his feet.

Sean Locklear North Carolina State – 6037, 301, Draft 3rd/4th round. Played left guard. Has a tendency to lose knee bend and play high. Flashes a good punch to stone defender. Position wall off blocker that plays better inside at guard. Question strength at times because he gets high and loses strength. Can get driven back if he doesn't play low. Struggles with edge speed at times.

Jacob Bell Miami (OH) – 6044, 306, 4th round. Played right guard in Senior Bowl. Physical player that gives good effort to finish and sustain block. Physically manhandled

#95 Dockett and pancaked him later in game. Can leak through to get downfield. Dockett #95 beat him off inside move once. Not a natural knee bender – must work at it. Takes good angles to make his block. Has the quickness to maintain contact with defender. Has the foot quickness to adjust to movement. Can adjust on run when pulling. Will follow through with block. Can improve hand quickness – above average now. Can lock up power rush. Needs more work on taking away inside move. Better than average recovery.

Kirk Chambers Stanford – 6070, 310, Draft 6th/7th round. Played left tackle in game. Good thick legs for big man. Drops head in pass pro. Waist bender that is inconsistent to move his feet. Wall off position blocker in pass protection. Struggles with edge speed. Good on backside cut off. Good use of hands. Big body. Needs technique work. Smart.

Shane Olivea Ohio State – 6027, 312, Draft 4th/5th round. Played right tackle in game. Needs to move inside to guard. Has a tendency to lose his knee bend. Good seal block on Leisle UCLA. Dominated #55 Kelly. Adibi #83 couldn't shed him. Olivea owned him during the game. Strong on downblocks. Inconsistent finish and sustain. Steady player that must improve technique.

Travelle Wharton South Carolina – 6034, 311, Draft 5th/6th round. Played right tackle in game. Lacks height to be a tackle on the next level. Should move inside to guard. Plays high and gives up a lot of ground in pass protection. Gets driven back. Wall off position blocker. Question football intelligence and awareness. Better in pass pro. Walls off defender. Lacks intensity. Inconsistent 2nd level play.

Nick Hardwick Purdue – 6035, 283, Draft 5th round. Played center and left guard in game – center only next level. Scrappy, competitive player. Usually played in the shotgun at Purdue. Got better every day in practice making the conventional snap to the QB and getting into his block. #93 Lavalais drove him back. Inconsistent anchor. Light in pants. Good feet to mirror and slide in pass pro. Overextended at times and didn't bring his feet.

Bo Lacy Arkansas – 6042, 302, Draft 6th/7th round. Played left tackle in game. Good feet to mirror and slide in pass protection. Effective on downblocks. Effective when he gets hands on you. Was beat on an inside spin move by #00 Laboy. Struggles with edge speed at times. Should play inside at OG or possibly right tackle.

Scott Wells Tennessee – 6014, 295, Draft 6th/7th round. Plays stout. Patient on pass protection. Wall off position blocker that stays on his feet. Gets his hands inside frame of defender and steers him. Good seal on 2nd level. Excellent help to guards. Good awareness. Shorter than idea. But makes up for lack of height with athletic ability. Does both shot gun and conventional snap. Can lock on and turn defender. Thick lower body. Does not long snap. Good balance. Smart center that can make the calls. Effective. Gets job done.

Adrian Clarke Ohio State – 6045, 334, Late draft/free agent. Flashes some wall off ability on pulls. Will overextend at times and goes to ground. Big wide body. Has problems with edge speed. Must play offensive guard. Wall off position type player. Can stop a charge and anchor if he keeps knee bend. Soft body.

Max Starks Florida – 6071 359, 6th/7th round project that probably will be drafted earlier. Low motor, slow twitch guy. Huge tackle with a big wing span that doesn't move his feet. Flounders and is awkward in pass protection. Plays high and struggles to anchor. Driven back by #91 Antonio Smith and was beat off the edge by #00 LaBoy. Drops his head in pass protection. Waist bender. Takes bad angles. Has some lateral quickness. Lacks concentration. Question football intelligence and awareness. Loses his feet on downblocks.

Brian Rimpf East Carolina – 6053, 315, Draft 5th/6th round. Played right tackle in game. Has the size to play tackle. Overextends on pass protection at times. Had some good individual battles with #43 Ball. Will catch defender at times, not hit him. Generally uses his hands inside effectively. Takes good angles and walls off linebackers. Inconsistent footwork at times. Won all four one on one battles in practice. Wall off position blocker. Has blitz pick up awareness. Good on down blocks. Gets beat inside with quicks at times. Needs technique work. Better in pass protection than run block.

Sean Bubin Illinois – 6063, 301, Late draft. Played left tackle in game. Limited athlete. Will drop head down in pass protection. Overextends and goes to ground at times. Slow feet after start. Plays high and loses power. Big wall off position guy. Not a space player. Lacks foot quickness to consistently adjust and recover against defender. Big lumbering tackle that lacks the quickness to reach and seal. Loses contact with defenders to sustain and finish block. Below average quickness to get downfield. High on pulls. Struggles with speed rushers. Below average hand quickness.

Jeb Terry North Carolina – 6055, 314, Draft late on size only. Played left guard in game. Went to ground on pulls after contact. Loses his feet. Plays high. Has some balance problems. Will lock out on pass protection and work to wall off rusher. Lost all of his one on one battles in pass pro drill. Below average ability to redirect – he lunges. Goes to ground on downblocks. Inconsistent to finish blocks. Flashes a good punch at times. Cut blocker. Not patient – lunges in pass pro. Balance problems and slow to react to defender. Will drop head in pass pro. Inconsistent player.

Alan Reuber Texas A&M – 6057, 309, Draft 7th round/free agent. Played right tackle in game. Struggles with edge speed. #15 Shawn Phillips when by him like he was tied to a stake. Lacks strength and knee bend to anchor. Must be moved inside to guard. Plays with a wide base. Average foot quickness to mirror and slide in pass protection. Gets shoulder turned and has problems with speed off edge. Allows too much penetration. Needs overall body strength and technique work.

Linebackers – North

Bryan Hickman Kansas State – 6003, 227, Draft 4th/5th round. Active, intense, speedy sideline to sideline player. One of the best things he does is blitz and you weren't allowed to do it in this game. Undersized linebacker that will have to play covered up. Good instincts to read and react to screen passes, etc. Explosive player that can accelerate off a block. Can run with backs. Can't play over a TE. Good range. Good hand use.

Niko Koutouvides Purdue – 6023, 238, Draft 4th/5th round. Active player from inside out. Always around the ball. Should contribute on special teams. Productive player that gets the job done. Better from tackle to tackle. Will need work on coverage skills. Will struggle in matchups in pass coverage.

Teddy Lehman Oklahoma – 6015, 238, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Straight line speed linebacker. Will contribute on special teams. Made a tackle on punt teams. Good instincts and anticipation in coverage. Gets a good break on the ball. Ultra quick linebacker that digests quickly. Good agility in traffic. Explosive player that doesn't always wrap up. Good range. Good use of hands.

Courtney Watson Notre Dame – 6012, 235, Draft 4th/5th round. Gets tied up on blocks. Good instincts and awareness to break up a pass. Good downhill player that is generally a good tackler. Will miss tackles because he doesn't always wrap up. Gives sideline to sideline effort. Quick to break up on passes in front of him. Can plant and drive. Can be beat in coverage by big tight ends. Active player that is always around the ball. Takes good angles and use of hands.

Grant Wiley West Virginia – 5117, 233, Free agent. Good instincts. Works through traffic. Lacks speed for next level. Undersized linebacker that throws his body around. Productive. Takes good angles and makes plays. Has average lateral movement. Plays with leverage but gets walled off by the big guys - tackles and tight ends. Has pass awareness. Needs to get more depth on drops. Will lose man to man matchups because he lacks speed. Good ball reactions.

DeMorrio Williams Nebraska – 6007, 229, Draft 6th/7th round. Good hitter. Cover linebacker. Quick to read and react. Has good hands to catch the ball. Will contribute on special teams. Active undersized outside linebacker that can't play over a tight end because of size and strength. Has sideline to sideline speed. Can close on ball carrier. Explosive hitter at times.

Linebackers – South

Michael Boulware Florida State – 6020, 223, Draft 2nd round. Active, speedy, athletic linebacker that can hit and make plays. Good instincts. Finishes play. All over the field. Can run and cover backs and wide receivers. Will never have to come off the field.

Swallows up tight ends. Good coverage linebacker. Plays the ball in the air. Good open field wrap tackler. Needs more strength to hold up for 16 games. Accelerates off of blocks. Quick to disengage blocker. Has the speed and quicks to run corner.

Rod Davis Southern Mississippi – 6020, 237, Draft 6th/7th round. Tackle to tackle player that lacks speed to outside. Below average coverage skills make him a 2-down linebacker. Good short lateral quickness. Waits on ball carrier at times instead of attacking him. Question instincts at times. Will get stuck on blockers. Needs to be more consistent to disengage blocker. Better tackler in confined area. Lacks speed to be an effective blitzer.

Keyaron Fox Georgia Tech – 6022, 228, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Has good speed and athletic ability. Takes good angles and has sideline to sideline range. Has the speed to run the play down from behind. Will finish pursuit. Quick to shed blocker. Doesn't stay blocked. Good use of hands. Explosive hitter. Quick to read and react. A play maker that is good in coverage. A good wrap tackler.

Daryl Smith Georgia Tech – 6017, 230, Draft 4th/5th round. Active player that works through traffic effectively. Tackle on the punt team. Should contribute on special teams. Smart heads up player that goes for the strip and makes plays. Will finish pursuit. Downhill linebacker that can run. He runs through his tackles. A thumper. Quick to break on ball.

Dontarrious Thomas Auburn – 6020, 235, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Wrap up tackler that has good lateral speed. Sideline to sideline player that makes plays. Keeps leverage on the ball. Takes good angles and can slip blockers. Has a burst to the ball. Will compete. Quick to drop into coverage. Has turning ability and gets good depth in drops.

Derrick Pope Alabama – 5111, 222, Priority free agent. Undersized linebacker that will need to play in a covered up scheme. Good tackler. Quick to read and react. Will struggle in man to man matchups with tight ends or big receivers. Should contribute on special teams. Fast twitch player that has a nose for the ball. Has good lateral quickness. Takes good angles in pursuit. Finishes play.

Senior Bowl

Defensive Backs – North

Ricardo Colclough Tusculum – 5104, 186, DC, Draft 2nd round. Was active and impressive in practice and game. He caused a fumble, broke up passes. Made tackles on special teams. Returned kickoffs and played corner. Small college player that is a good athlete that has quickness and speed. He reportedly was a major college recruit. Raw player that needs technique and mechanic work. Good vision. Good plant and drive.

Brandon Everage Oklahoma – 5115, 195, Strong Safety, Draft 3rd/4th round. Explosive hitter on things in front of him. Inconsistent tackler. Can support the run quickly and effectively – will compete. May look at quarterback too long sometimes and lose separation on receiver. Has some hip tightness. Has the speed and athletic ability to play the receiver or the ball. Aggressive player.

Rich Gardner Penn State – 5104, 191, DC, Draft 3rd/4th round. Can close quickly on ball in front of him. Was penalized for holding receiver in game because he grabbed a jersey. Has a recovery burst. Has good ball awareness. Plays with good knee bend in back pedal. Has good foot quickness. Smooth in transition. Fluid hips.

Jeremy LeSueur Michigan – 6000, 196, DC, Draft 2nd round. Big athletic corner that played some safety. Fast twitch player that has a recovery burst. Has good anticipation to break on ball. Has good ball skills. Has good foot quickness and ability to adjust to receiver routes. Smooth in transition and without hesitation. A good tackler.

Will Poole USC – 5102, 193, DC, Draft 2nd round. Injured in practice. Good ball skills. Can track and trail wide receivers. Throws body around as a tackler. Quick break on ball. Active corner that likes to get in on the action. Good foot quickness and ability to adjust to routes. Fluid and ease of turns. Has a burst to close on receiver. Good body control and balance in plant. Transition is smooth and athletic. Good timing and jumping ability.

Bob Sanders Iowa – 5083, 204, SS, Draft 2nd round. Injured. Undersized safety that is explosive and productive. Only practiced 2 days because of injury but flashed his ability at Iowa. Instinctive player with good timing. NFL compare – Mike Brown/Chicago but faster. Will contribute on special teams. Good body control and balance in plant. Good on run support.

Will Allen Ohio State – 6006, 191, FS, Draft 2nd/3rd round. Active player that made plays in Senior Bowl. Was a late add due to injuries to Bob Sanders and Will Poole. Good instincts. Quick to read and react. Makes big plays. Has good athletic ability. Good on run support. Physical player.

Stuart Schweigert Purdue – 6017, 212, FS, Draft 4th/5th round. Big free safety that has above average speed. Good anticipation and break on deep overlap in cover two. Active safety that is better in zone coverage. Will struggle in man to man coverage against wide receivers. Takes good angles in run support. Good timing on blitzes (could not blitz in Senior Bowl). Will contribute on special teams. Box type run support/blitzer. Generally a good tackler. Jones ran over him in game.

Derrick Strait Oklahoma – 5110, 189, DC, Draft 2nd round. Physical player. Majors in zone coverage. Can handle combo coverages. Needs work on man to man coverage and certain techniques. Was beat off of break on post in Senior Bowl game. Can plant and drive on ball in front of him. Will contribute as a coverage man on special teams. Can track and trail most receivers. Can run ball carrier down. Plays with confidence. Explosive on corner support. Will finish pursuit.

Joey Thomas Montana State – 6007, 193, DC, Draft 4th round. Active corner with size and athletic ability. Needs work on technique and mechanics but has the raw skills. Has a breakdown in discipline in coverage. Could be a boom on bust guy. Has the ability to make a team if he pays the price. Has fluidness in his movement. Can stay on receiver's hip. Needs to keep knees bent. Plays high at times.

Defensive Backs – South

Greg Brooks Southern Mississippi – 5103, 175, Draft 3rd/4th round. Cover corner. Good laterally. Quick to read and digest. Can plant and drive on ball. Has good playing speed. Good ball reactions and body control. Has good timing and leaping ability. Will contribute on special teams. Gets jump on ball with good anticipation. Smooth athlete.

Etric Pruitt Southern Mississippi – 5117, 189, Draft 2nd round. Physical safety that reminds me of Brian Dawkins. Active in run support. Effective tackler. Mark Wilson OT California – Draft 5th/6th round, 6062, 303. Long arms 33 ¾", hands 10 1/8". Good punch. Ascending player. Wall off/position blocker. Aggressive player. Average athlete. Has some lower body stiffness. Needs more upper and lower body strength. Struggles with edge speed. High cut tackle.

Joseph Hayes OG San Jose State – Free agent, 6041, 311. Long arms 33 1/8", hands 10". Physical player. Wide body. Wall off blocker. Plays high and loses anchor. Gets driven back. Good use of hands. First move is up on snap – not out. Flashes compete and aggressiveness.

Brad Lekkerkerker OT Cal-Davis – Free agent, 6065, 321. Arms 33 1/8". Locks out and mirrors on pass pro. Gets shoulders turned. Position wall off blocker. Gets high at times and loses anchor. Below average strength.

Marko Cavka OT Sacramento State – Priority free agent, 6067, 284. Long arms 33 ½". Will get high and loses power. Needs to consistently bend knees. Worked #93 Issac Hilton around pile. Needs to develop upper and lower body strength. Developmental player.

Ryan Boschetti DT UCLA – Draft 6th/7th round, 6041, 293. Big hands 10 1/8". Good effort player. Presses the pocket. Active player. Played both right and left defensive tackle spots in game. Uses multiple moves to defeat blocker. Gets hands up on pass rush. Good run player. Could be a 20-25 player rotate guy. Instinctive and plays with good motor.

Chris Murphy OT California – Free agent, 6040, 287. Long arms 33 ¾". Gets high and gets overpowered. Inconsistent anchor. Gets beat off the edge by speed rushers. Biggest negative is weight and his tendency to play high. He gets up on his toes. He doesn't get any movement in run game.

AJ Ricker OC Missouri – Free agent, 6027, 296. Hand 10 ¼". Gets hands up quickly in pass pro. Can stop a charge. Generally keeps a good base. Wall off/position blocker. Will lose his feet in traffic. Not an explosive or space player.

Derek McCoy WR Colorado – Draft 6th/7th round, 6030, 207. Will lay out for the ball. Good low ball catch in game. Possession type receiver. Long strider. Appears to have marginal speed. Average quickness in and out of break. Made 4 catches in game. May fall out of draft because of speed but may make a team as a free agent if not drafted.

Brett Pierce TE Stanford – Draft 7th round/priority free agent, 6053, 258. Short arms. Good hands. Position/wall off blocker. Will compete. Good adjust to poorly thrown balls. Understands the passing game. Similar to Eagles Chad Lewis. Smart and mature.

Tim Euhus TE Oregon State – 5th/6th round, 6045, 252. Long arms 33 3/8". Can make the tough low ball catch. Mirror/wall off blocker. Understands the passing game. Needs more upper and lower body strength. Can pluck and snatch ball.

Bo Schobel DE TCU – 3rd/4th round, 6050, 266. Short arms 30 1/2", hands 10 1/8". Active, disruptive player. Constantly pressured the quarterback. Good edge player. Finishes the play. Needs to get stronger in his upper body. Has a sudden first step. Needs to play lower. Relentless to QB. Upfield rusher that goes to the whistle. Doesn't stay blocked.

Brandon Kennedy DT North Texas – Free agent, 5095, 332. Arms 31 3/4", small hands 8 1/2". Did not play. Still had injured ankle. Has ability but many question marks.

Jeremy Williams DT Washington State – Free agent, 6037, 286. Fleshy build. Low motor guy that loafes after ball carrier on plays away. Camp only type guy. Maybe the light will come on.

Amon Gordon DE Stanford – 6th/7th round, 6022, 301. Gets hands up on rush. Good effort player. Uses a hit and spin move. Good athlete. Lacks consistency in his game. All techniques and mechanics need to be upgraded. Flash guy that can look good or bad depending on play. Raw and green but has ability.

Terry Johnson NT Washington – Draft 4th/5th round, 6025, 297. Long torso. Loads of ability. Flashes signs of a great player. Explosive. Good lateral quickness. Presses the pocket. Only thing holding him back is his attitude. Does he want to do it? Question endurance. He doesn't finish the play. Everything is a flash. Slips blocks. Can be a one gap hell raiser. Quick to read and react. Good use of hands. Flashes upfield burst to ball carrier. Can turn speed to power. Has some pass rush skills. Selective compete. Can't be drafted too high because this is a boom or bust player. Some teams won't fool with him.

Shonka's Sleepers

"If you're just looking for sleepers, you're going to get a sleepy team." Long time Dallas scout, Walt Yowarsky.

All of these players have the ability to make a team. Do they have the heart and the Big Time compete? The tapes say yes. Stay tuned.

Michael Adams, Safety, Delaware – productive and athletic.

Eric Alexander, OB, LSU – undersized, active, high motor player.

Jared Allen, DE/LS, Idaho State – will contribute somewhere, long snapper, situations.

Rod Bryant, DC, Idaho – returns kickoffs.. Dev. WR?

Patrick Crayton, WR, Northwest Oklahoma – athlete.

Curtis DeLoatch, SS/FS/DC, NC A&T – ran down Fred Russell from behind.

John Paul Foschi, TE, Georgia Tech – solid all around TE.

Mark Graham, FS, Buffalo – smart player, right place at the right time.

Michael Grant, Dc, Mars Hill – good instincts and awareness.

Marwan Hage, OC, Colorado – solid as an OG as a junior, in 2003 moved to OC.

Michael Harden, DC, Missouri – quick, fast and productive, 4.47

Thomas Herrion, OG, Utah – has ability to start in league.

Spencer Johnson, DL, Auburn – athletic and instinctive, will start in right scheme.

Mark Jones, WR/DC/RS, Tennessee – will make a team & play somewhere.

Christian Morton, DC, Illinois – has ability. Boom or Bust.

Bruce Perry, RB, Maryland – outstanding and explosive when healthy.

Derrick Pope, OB, Alabama – undersized, fast twitch player.

David Richardson, DC, Cal-Poly – best defensive back at Las Vegas Classic.

Justin Sandy, Safety, Northern Iowa – another UNI NFL player.

Scott Smith, DE, Maryland – injured in 2003, has measurables.

Reggie Torbor, OB/DE, Auburn – he'll play somewhere. Quick off edge.

Andrew Wagstrom, OG, South Dakota State – Adam Timmerman clone?

Brandon Warfield, RB, Utah – explosive in hole, drives legs on contact, another Utah sleeper?

Carlos Wright, WR, Tennessee State – natural receiver and can make you miss.

Matthew Zielinski, NT, Duke – looks like Jeff Zgonina
